

TO SUM UP (UNIT 6).

DURATION: Long and short sounds.

COMPOSER: LUDWIG VAN BEETHOVEN (1770 – 1827).

Beethoven was a German composer in the transitional period between Classical and Romantic Era. He moved to Vienna where he got a big success as a composer, conductor and pianist. However, by his twenties he began to suffer from hearing loss and finally, he was completely deaf. Instead of this fact, he is considered one of the most important composers in the history. Some of his best known compositions are Fifth and Ninth Symphonies, Für Elise for piano or his only opera, Fidelio.